Am I on Track for College?
Look for the green, yellow, or red symbols next to your section scores. They let you know if your scores are at or above the benchmark scores. Benchmarks show college readiness. If you see green, you're on track to be ready for college when you graduate.
If you score below the benchmark, you can use the feedback and tips in your online report to get back on track.

Benchmark scores:
Evidence-Based Reading and Writing: 480
Math: 530

How Do My Scores Compare?
A percentile shows how you scored, compared to other students. It's a number between 1 and 99 and represents the percentage of students whose scores are equal to or below yours.
For example, if your Math percentile is 57, that means 57% of test takers have Math scores equal to or below yours.
The Nationally Representative Sample Percentile compares your score to the scores of typical U.S. students.
SAT® User Percentile compares your score to the scores of students who typically take the test.

How Can I Improve?
To see which skills are your strongest and what you can do to boost your college readiness, go to your full report online and look for Skills Insight™.

What Are Score Ranges?
Test scores are single snapshots in time—if you took the SAT once a week for a month, your scores would vary. That's why score ranges are better representations of your true ability. They show how much your score can change with repeated testing, even if your skill level remains the same.
Colleges know this, and they get score ranges along with scores so they can consider scores in context.
Your online score report shows your score ranges.

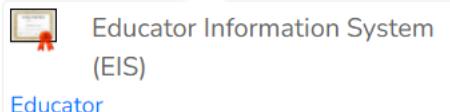

The DOE must approve your request before you are actually exempt from taking a test/s. Detailed instructions for the waiver request are on page 3.

Applying for a Waiver (aka Test Evaluation Request)

First, download your score report pdf from the College Board (SAT) site. Then, access your NHDOE EIS account. If you do not have an account yet, you will need to create one. Detailed instructions for creating an account are on our website.

After logging in, you will see something like this:

System/Role Listing

Click educator. You will go to a window that looks something like this:

This screenshot shows the "Home Page" of the New Hampshire Educator Information System. The top navigation bar includes "Home", "My Profile", "Applications", "Professional Development", and "Local Reports". The left sidebar has links for "Location", "Home", "Help", "Contact Support", "Navigate", "Launch SSO", and "Logout of EIS". The main content area features a welcome message "Welcome Vicki Kelly" and a note "Thank you for using EIS and keeping the information up to date!". A large purple arrow points from the text "Your EDID will be here." to the right side of the page, which is heavily redacted with yellow ink. Below this, there are two sections: "View Your Credentials Here" and "Online Applications and Test Evaluation Requests". The "Online Applications and Test Evaluation Requests" section contains a link "Click here to view the applications and test evaluation requests that are available for you to submit online." The top right corner shows the user "Vicki Kelly (Educator)".

This screenshot shows the "Applications and Test Evaluation Requests" page. The left sidebar is identical to the previous screenshot. The main content area lists several application types with their descriptions and submission links. A red circle highlights the "Test Evaluation Request" link, which is described as: "If enrolled in a New Hampshire Approved Educator Preparation Program, or enrolling in one, click here to apply for a test evaluation request. Upload any applicable test score reports using the wizard in the next steps. DO NOT USE THIS LINK IF applying for a credential via any pathway - test score reports will be evaluated with the application and a separate test evaluation is not needed." Other listed applications include "Apply For New Endorsement if You Completed an Approved Program in NH or Another State (AEPP)", "Apply For New Site-Based Licensing Plan - Statement of Eligibility Endorsement (SBLP-SOE)", "Apply For New Demonstrated Competencies Endorsement (DC)", "Apply For Educational Interpreter/Transliterator Site-Based Licensing Plan - (SOE-EIT)", "Apply For School Nurse License", "Apply For Paraeducator License (Para I or Para II)", "Apply for a Name Change", "Request the Verification of a Previously Issued New Hampshire Educator Credential", and "Apply for a Criminal History Record Check Clearance". The top right corner shows the user "Vicki Kelly (Educator)".

Then click online applications and test evaluation requests.

You will be taken through a series of pages with your pre-populated profile information. Confirm that the information is correct on each page before clicking next.

The fourth page asks the criminal history questions you have been asked before. You will also need to check the boxes certifying that you are the person on the application, that you have read the Code of Ethics, and that you have read the Code of Conduct.
